

One Day Workshop on Internet Literacy

Sirawung Raiping
Assistant Professor, Modern College, Imphal East.

MDC, Imphal (Dated 4/12/2020).

"One day workshop on Internet Literacy" was successfully organized by IQAC, Modern College at the Audio-visual Hall, Modern College Imphal East. Mrs. Ch. Rita Devi, President - Modern College Teachers' Association grace as the Chief Guest. In her Inaugural remarks, she articulated the importance of Internet Literacy. Dr. O. Premila Chanu, Principal, Modern College, Imphal, presided over the Inaugural function and expressed the importance of scoring points on NAAC Accreditation through Internet literacy. The welcome note of Mrs. R.K. Mrinamayee, Assistant Professor, Department of Botany, Modern College Imphal, opened the workshop. One of the reports of the 'United Nations' of Policy briefing on education showed that the current pandemic had disrupted the education of more than 94% that accounts to 1.6 billion students worldwide. The keynote address was on the importance of Internet literacy during the prevailing Covid 19 pandemic and beyond, expressed by Sirawung Raiping, Assistant Professor and Nodal Officer-IT, Modern College, Imphal.

The theme of the first session was to understand the concept of end-user computer applications; the first speaker Dr. Th. Tilakraj, Assistant Professor, Ideal Girl College, Imphal, elucidated the vast application of Electronic-mail and its implication in education and particularly under the lessening of physical interaction. Dr. N. Sanjoy Singh, Associate Professor, G.P. Women's' College, Imphal, explained the internet and its tools for education. He explores the vast utility application of online learning platform which can be used for virtual learning outreaching the students through the internet, that can be of great advantage under prevailing lockdown. Mr. N. Bhubon Singh, Associate Professor, Coordinator IQAC, Modern College, Imphal, pronounced the vote of thanks expressing gratitude all the presenters and participants. The second session was full of excitement with the use of the interactive Google-meet internet interface for the faculty's hands-on computer practice along with the subject experts. The faculty express the need and importance of this kind of workshop. The experts had immensely motivated the participants.